OTTEN JOHNSON SPONSORS WASHINGTON PARK TRAIL RESTORATION AND TREE PLANTING EVENT

Denver, Colorado – Otten Johnson Robinson Neff + Ragonetti PC (Otten Johnson) is pleased to announce that they are the sponsor of the Washington Park Trail Restoration and Tree Planting Event, this Saturday, May 19, 2012. The event is being organized by Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado (VOC) and will include over 300 volunteers from across the metro area.

Volunteers will be constructing new alignments of the Washington Park running trail and planting over 60 trees. This project is important because the Wash Park Loop is in need of care: it is typical that thousands of visitors utilize the park in one weekend. The trail was originally constructed by over 800 VOC volunteers in 1993 and is in need of a reroute to create a more sustainable trail for users.

“We are very excited to not only be sponsoring the event, but to also be bringing a team of volunteers to help with the work,” commented Amanda Smith, a shareholder at Otten Johnson and a VOC board member. “This is the second VOC event that the firm has supported. It is a way for us to help nurture the parks and spaces we all use, in addition to being a lot of fun for our attorneys and staff, and their families.”

ABOUT VOLUNTEERS FOR OUTDOOR COLORADO (VOC)

Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado (VOC) is a statewide nonprofit volunteer organization whose mission is to motivate and enable citizens to be active stewards of Colorado’s natural resources. Since 1984, VOC’s award-winning volunteer, youth, and training programs have engaged more than 63,000 youth and adults in caring for Colorado’s outdoors – a total donated labor value of over $16.5 million.

Throughout the year, volunteers are invited to participate in volunteer projects around the state, such as building and restoring trails, planting trees, and preserving historic structures on public lands. For information, visit www.voc.org.
